

WELCOME WORDS TO WOMEN.

From the view point of the average man housework is very easy. The wife is right at home. She is her own mistress. She can sit down and rest any time. She can even go to bed for a nap if she feels like it. She can order her household affairs just to suit her own convenience. If she doesn't feel equal to doing work to-day, she can do it to-morrow. That's the beautiful theory of the average man.

Just suppose the Egyptian task-masters, when they made the required daily tale of bricks tax the uttermost of human strength, had said to the toiling slaves, "Don't hurry, take a rest every now and then—only don't forget that your tale of bricks must be all right at night or else there'll be trouble."

There's the fact. There are the day's duties to be got through, and the women who rest may not. The woman, who, when she married, said, "Now, I'll be my own mistress," finds herself a slave to household cares and duties.

And oh! how much that woman needs rest sometimes. She brushes and scrubs, and rolls pasting, her temples throbbing, her back aching, her nerves quivering under the stress of pain. What she would give if she could just creep upstairs and throw herself on the bed in a darkened room and rest.

Rest would temporarily relieve the strain, doubtless, but it would be the same story over again to-morrow. The real need of weak, nervous women is strength, and that need is fully met and satisfied by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

It makes weak women strong and sick women well. It removes the causes of women's weakness, tranquilizes and invigorates the nerves, encourages the appetite and induces restful sleep. "Favorite Prescription" is a positive cure for the most complicated and obstinate cases of leucorrhea, excessive flowing, painful menstruation, unnatural suppressions and irregularities, prolapsus or falling of the womb, weak back, "female weakness," anteversion, retroversion, bearing-down sensations, chronic congestion, inflammation and ulceration of the womb, inflammation, pain and tenderness of the ovaries, accompanied with "internal heat."

"I am pleased to add my testimony in behalf of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription," writes Miss Earline Agard, Chaplin, Patriotic Daughters of America, of 413 1/2 Michigan Avenue, Lansing, Mich. "I cannot find language to express my gratitude and joy over the fact that I am well once more. Wearing my corsets too tight seemed to have brought on an extra abdominal pressure, weakening the ligaments and pushing the internal organs down. What to do I knew not, as no medicines I took seemed to help me."

"I had heard of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and determined to try it, as a last resort. Before the first bottle was used I began to feel better, but could hardly believe that this was permanent, but my improvement went steadily on, and within four months I was like a new woman. Now I have no more pains, am well and strong, and am extremely grateful to you."

There is nothing to conceal about the make-up of "FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION." It is an absolutely pure medicine—made of native roots—Nature's own restoratives, compounded after a formula concerning which there can be no question, by skilled chemists and by thoroughly scientific processes. Doctor Pierce is perfectly willing to let every one know that his "FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION" contains Blue Cohosh root, Lady's Slipper root, Unicorn root, Black Cohosh root and Golden Seal root. Every doctor knows that such a prescription is beneficial in the diseases of women and when properly compounded is certain to effect a cure in nearly all cases when given on a fair trial. Every bottle of the "FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION" which leaves Dr. Pierce's immense laboratories in Buffalo, N. Y., has plainly printed upon its wrapper all the ingredients of which it is composed. Thus Dr. Pierce proves to the world his own confidence in the remedy which for forty years has borne his name and which is known all through the United States and Canada, England, Australia, and in parts of South America, Africa and Asia, as a sovereign cure for those diseases which, unchecked, make our women old before their time.

It will be noticed that there is no alcohol in the "FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION." Dr. Pierce never believed in using alcohol in the preparation of his famous household remedies. For it, he substitutes chemically pure glycerine, which has wonderful properties for extracting the medicinal principles of roots and preserving them at their full strength, without any deleterious effect whatever.

In fact, of Dr. Pierce's medicines is the one, confiding, open, honest statement of their full composition, giving an ingredient in plain English, and a fear of successful criticism and a confidence that the good sense of the afflicted will lead them to appreciate this honorable manner of confiding in what they are taking into their systems when making use of these medicines.

Dr. Pierce feels that he can afford to take the afflicted into his full confidence and lay all the ingredients of his medicines freely before them because these ingredients are such as are endorsed and most strongly praised by scores of the most eminent medical writers of all the several schools of practice as cures for the diseases for which these medicines are recommended.

Your druggist sells the "FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION" and also that famous alterative, blood purifier and stomach tonic, the "GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY." Write to Dr. Pierce about your case. He is an experienced physician and will treat your case as confidential and without charge for correspondence. Address him at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., of which he is chief consulting physician.

It is as easy to be well as ill—and much more comfortable. Constipation is the cause of many forms of illness. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. They are tiny, sugar-coated granules. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, two a mild cathartic. All dealers in medicines sell them.

CREEPY STORIES OF BURIAL ALIVE

Cause All England to Become Horror-Stricken.

Society for the Prevention of Premature Burial Gives Out Some Statistics.

DEAD CHILD FOUND PLAYING

London, June 21.—All England is horror-stricken by the creepy stories that were told and the alarming statements that were made at a meeting here Monday in the rooms of the association for the prevention of premature burial.

Dr. Stenson Hooker told a tale narrated to him by a lady concerning her little child. The child was given up for dead, the cover was put over its face and preparations for the funeral began. But for a mere chance of time—if the child had not come to as soon as it did—it would have gone through the horrors of premature burial.

Dr. Hooker mentioned that it was becoming a common practice for people to insert in their wills provisions for the taking of such precautions after apparent death as would prevent premature burial. He added that post-mortem examination as carried on in England, were undertaken far too soon, and had been begun on people who were simply in a trance.

Dr. Walter Hadwen cited the following cases which had actually occurred and been verified by medical men during the past year in Britain:

Buried alive, 149; narrow escapes from burial alive, 219; dissected alive, 10; narrow escapes from dissection alive, 3; embalmed alive, 2; burned alive, 1; total, 384.

It was monstrous, said Dr. Hadwen, to beg the question by saying that the cases were so rare as to be practically non-existent. Only two in every 100,000 bodies were exhumed in the United Kingdom. Mistakes were buried out of sight. When old cemeteries were turned up bodies were found which showed conclusively, from their position, that they had been buried alive.

Dr. Hadwen told of a case of a child of five which was declared to be dead and was taken to a mortuary. Later on it was found playing with the flowers that had been placed upon its covering sheet. Its mother was a sufferer from heart disease, and when the news about her child was brought to her her joy and excitement caused her immediate death.

CONGRESS PROUD OF RECORD MADE

More Popular Measures Than Usual are Passed.

No Breaks Are Made By Majority That Will Redound to Benefit of Minority.

OPINION OF WHIP IN HOUSE

Washington, June 21.—With this session of congress practically at an end, the Republican leaders are congratulating themselves and each other on the popular measures that have been enacted. A survey of the work of the session convinces them that congress has not made any bad "breaks" that will redound to the benefit of the Democrats in the coming campaign. On the contrary, they believe that the record is one that can be appealed to with pride and that it will prove a vote-getter.

Representative Watson, whip of the house, said today: "There has not been a congress within my recollection that has enacted as many wholesome popular measures. First in importance is the railroad rate bill, which is an incursion into an entirely new field of legislation. Nothing like it ever had been attempted before. It establishes a new policy—the government control of railroads. The time had arrived to take this step. The railroads, grown rich and powerful, had commenced to exceed their proper functions by building up one business at the expense of another, by giving rebates to some and imposing full rates on others, and by discriminating against freight that came into competition with coal companies and other side lines that the railroads themselves operated. This railroad rate bill is perhaps not ideally perfect, but it is one of the greatest laws in the interest of the people ever enacted in this country."

"The law removing the tax from denatured alcohol will be of incalculable public good. More persons will be directly benefited in a personal way by it than by any other law congress has enacted at this session. It means cheap light and cheap and clean fuel, and it will enlarge the demand for corn, potatoes and all other farm products from which alcohol can be made. "The pure food law and the meat inspection law are other beneficial measures that will meet with the approval of the people. The meat inspection law will give American meat products a standing in foreign countries that they do not now possess. Nearly all of the European governments are strongly centralized and their subjects very generally have an idea that anything a government does is done right."

"Therefore they will have confidence in meats that come to them bearing the United States government's stamp of approval after having passed through a rigid inspection. I think that the immigration law, applying an educational test to immigrants, will rank among the best acts of the session. While the pure food law, immigration law and meat inspection law have not yet been finally agreed to their enactment is only a matter of a few days' time."

"Do you know of any sins of commission or omission that congress will have to answer for?" the whip was asked. "Congress," said he, "has stood pat on the tariff. If that is a crime, we shall have to answer for it."

Cannon to Speak.

Speaker Cannon will make a speaking tour of Indiana this year, visiting the close congressional districts. The details of the speaker's tour will be arranged by the Republican congressional committee.
